SHOT DOWN DEAD.

Terrible Tragedy in a Massachusetts Town This Afternoon.

A Merchant Cruelly Shot Down in His Counting Room.

And His Murderer Afterwards Blows
His Brains Out.

The Work of an Insane Man.

New Bedford, Mass., June 6.—A terrible tragedy occurred in this city just before noon to-day in the counting room of Philip D.
Slocumb. Slocumb was sitting at his desk in the counting room making an entry in his ledger, when Charles Foss came from the back room, leaped a moment against the railing dividing the counting room from the store, and without speaking drew his revolver and fired one shot, which entered Slocumb's head at the base of the skull, and he fell from the stool to the floor and died almost instantly. Immediately after this, Foss went to the back room and putting the muzzle of the pistol to his right temple, pulled the trigger and fell to the floor. The pistol was held so close that his forehead was singed and the bones fractured.

Burned to Death in Bed.

BARKER, Ont., June 6.—About 12 o'clock last night the wife of J. Worch and four children were burned to death in bed in their home here. Mr. Worch escaped by jumping out of the window after vain efforts to rescue his wife and children. He says when he awoke the whole room seemed on fire. He tried to pull his wife off the bed, but could not do so as fire was leaping out of the mattress all around her. He thinks the fire originated in the back shed, and says there were no signs of fire when he retired at 10:30 p. m.

To-Day's Stocks and Finances.

New York, June 6.—Stocks were dull and strong throughout the first hour, generally higher, although Lakeview showed a loss of  $\frac{1}{2}$ . During the hour the whole list advanced  $\frac{1}{4}$  to  $\frac{1}{2}$ , later Western Union and Lakeview, but Union Pacific, New York Central, Northwestern and Louisville & Nashville gained  $\frac{1}{2}$  to  $\frac{3}{4}$ . At 11 o'clock the market was very dull and steady.
Bar silver, 1.07. Stocks dull, during the past hour weak, the early advance generally lost, and at noon the market was very dull at quotations which were not materially different from the opening quotations.

Heavy Wheat Sales.

CHICAGO, June 6.—There was rather a heavy realizing this afternoon and under heavy selling the market fell back 15¢ from top figure, and closed 13¢ under yesterday; 87¢ cash; June; 89¢ (88¢) July; 91¢ August; 89¢ September.
Corn easier, 45¢ cash, June; 45½¢ July;
45½¢ August.
Oats easier, 33½¢ cash, June; 33½¢ July;
32½¢ August.

Whisky's Telegram to Sheridan.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—General Crook telegraphs General Sheridan that the Indians passed Duncan station on the night of the 4th inst., going south, were well mounted and traveling very fast, and states that it looks now as if the only chance is that the troops at Camp Verde, Canyon can intercept them. Captain Crawford, with ninety scouts, will pursue them. A dispatch from Brady, of the 5th instant, states that the hostiles have left the Mogollon Mountains and are moving south.

A Human Lightning Rod.

CHATTANOOGA, June 5.—Tom Maloney, a railroad man, started across the railroad yard to seek shelter from a sudden shower yesterday and was running along the track when a blinding flash of lightning lit the heavens. Electric fluid passed along the steel rail, entered his body at the head and passed entirely through his frame. He fell dead at once. His shoe was slit and the crown of his hat cut from the brim, but no marks whatever were left on his body.

Denouncing the G. A. R.

MILFORD, Mass., June 5.—Father Cuddihy scathingly denounces the Grand Army of the Republic from his pulpit. In a sermon he said: "I warn the Catholics that the Grand Army of the Republic is nothing but a Know-Nothing body, and no respectable Catholic could join the bigoted fence-breakers." He said he would refuse Catholic participants Christian burial till they had confessed their guilt before witnesses and asked pardon of the Church.

The Danger of Emigrant Bedding.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The Surgeon-General of the Marine Hospital service is informed that junk dealers in Boston are purchasing large quantities of bed ticking now on the steamships by emigrants, most of which is procured from quarantine stations.
This bedding is viewed by the sanitary authorities as exceptionally dangerous. The matter will be brought to the attention of the different steamship authorities with a view to having the practice discontinued.

War Against the Silver Dollar.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The Secretary of the Treasury to-day received a strong protest against the continued coinage of the silver dollar, which contains the signature of almost every business man in the State of South Carolina. Among the signers are the Treasurer and Comptroller-General of the State.

The Amalgamated Association.

PITTSBURGH, June 6.—The Amalgamated Association is holding its annual reunion at Beaver, Pa., to-day. The attendance is not as large as usual. There is nothing new in the strike.

The Banks' Surplus Capital.

New York, June 6.—The weekly statement shows a reserve decrease of $751,000.
Banks now hold $90,000,000 in excess of legal requirements.

Grant's Good Sleep.

New York, June 6.—General Grant slept fully seven hours last night, and his condition this morning is one of freedom from pain.

The late Earl of Dudley was the victim of many extravagant fancies. An exchange says: "One of his fancies was that this body was as brittle as glass. On that account he was constantly and closely attended by a body servant, whose business it was to prevent any person from knocking accidentally against his fragile lordship."

To those who buy for cash, I will make a difference of 10 per cent. on any retail prices you may get in town on Groceries, Fish and Fruits. I am never undersold.
I keep no books. L. S. KANEY.

A Monopoly That "Should Go."

ENR, June 5.—The failure of Thomas Brown for over $500,000 is ascribed to the unfair means taken by the Standard Oil Company. Brown recently left their employ, and embarked in the refining business in Erie. He drew his supplies from his own wells in the Cleveland and Cherry Grove regions, and was taking considerable trade away from the Standard. That monopoly combated him in every quarter with cut rates, and it is alleged, joined a movement in Chicago, and finding him short on a long market, were almost successful in ruining him, when friends saved him by securing an extension. It is understood that he will get another extension from Erie creditors, and that he will lead a grand movement, in which his oil refinery will be the plant, to insurgate a war upon the Standard Oil monopoly. The rumor that Brown's failure has affected an Erie bank is not true. All creditors in Erie are well secured.

Not the Male for That Post.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 5.—Simon Brown, a rich widower, nearly seventy years old, living in Allegheny county, fell in love some time ago with Sarah Post, an eighteen-year-old girl, who came from Pennsylvania to work. She was a very handsome girl and was willing to marry Brown. His children agreed to pay her $5,000 if he would give up the idea of marrying the girl, and he agreed to the proposal. The money was paid to him on Friday last, and he married Miss Post yesterday. She disappeared during the night, taking the money with her, and nothing has been seen or heard of her since.
Nothing is known of her antecedents.

Want to Fill Edmunds' Shoes.

BERLINGTON, Vt., June 5.—It is generally understood that ex-Governor Smith, Proctor and Steward, ex-Congressman Poland and Judge Powers, of the Supreme Court, are candidates for the Senatorship to succeed Mr. Edmunds. Senator Edmunds' term does not expire until 1886, but the next Legislature in 1886 will elect his successor. Judge Poland has removed from St. Johnsbury into Waterville on the west side, the Edmunds district.

BEECHER'S IDEAS ON EVOLUTION.

True Religion Will Not Suffer, but Theology Must Be Reconstructed.

In his sermon on evolution last Sunday, Mr. Beecher asked: What, then, does evolution teach? Evolution teaches that the creation was not accomplished in six days of twenty-four hours. That for certain. That the divine method occupied ages of immense duration; that nothing of all the treasures of the globe as they now stand were created at first in their present form. Evolution teaches that the earth has had a long history, and that the position in which they now stand they have come to through ages of gradual change and unfolding; that the earth itself went through a period of long preparation. It may be said that evolution is accepted as the method of creation by the whole scientific world, and that the period of controversy is passed and closed. A few venerable men yet live with many doubts, but it may be said, and has been declared by eminent physicists, that 99 per cent of the working scientific men are believers in the subject of evolution, and the time is coming when the doctrine of evolution or the method of God in the creative world will be just as universally accepted as are the great physical doctrines of the geocentric system and of gravitation. It has just what they had—the Bible—and the whole church after them, and they wiped them all out. Evolution is a stage is held by men profound, Christian, honored, scientific teachers—Professor Dana, of Yale College, a devout communicant in the Presbyterian Church; by Professor La Conte, of the University of California, an elder in the church; by Dr. McCosh, President of Princeton College, a Presbyterian; and by the Presbyterian and a Scotch Presbyterian at that, and I think the Scotch typical theory is one so vigorous that even John Calvin would have felt himself in iron corset if he had tried to put it on; by Professor Asa Gray, of Harvard University, a communicant of the Episcopal Church, by increasing numbers of Christian preachers in America; by Catholics like St. George Mivart in England; by Grant, an ardent admirer of Herbert Spencer and his whole theory, though rejecting agnosticism, and himself a leading divine in the Church of England, and finally among hundreds of others, soundly learned and Christian men; by the Bishop of London, whose Sampton lectures for 1884 contained a bold, frank and judicial estimate of evolution and its relations to Christianity.
To the fearful and timid, let me say that while evolution is certain to obliterate theology, nothing away from the grounds of true religion. It will strip of Sath's unmanly armor from David to give him greater power over the giants. Simple religion is the unfolding of the best nature of man toward God and toward his fellow-man. It has been hindered and impaired by the outrageous, complicated and unbearable systems of theology that have existed, and if you change theology you will emancipate religion.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 6.—The Novosti announces that it has been privately informed from Caucasus that the Ameer of Afghanistan, Abdurrahman, has been foully murdered by his suite. It is said that the murder took place in Persia, where the Ameer was at the time traveling, and that Ayoub Khan deposed the Ameer to his successor.
The report causes much excitement.
The reported murder of the Ameer of Afghanistan is doubted in official circles here, as the Government has received no information up to a late hour this afternoon tending to confirm the rumor. Some believe that the report is a stock jobbing canard.

BRITISH REBELS IN MONTANA.

Capture of Dumont and Dumais by Fort Assinaboine Troops.

On the 26th ult., word was received by the commanding officer at Fort Assinaboine, in northern Montana, that the Canadian rebels Gabriel Dumont and Michel Dumais had crossed the line. Sergeant Perkins was sent out with a detachment and came upon the fugitives at Clear creek and informed them that they were prisoners. Dumont replied that he was on his way to Assinaboine for medical treatment. They were taken to the post and confined in the guard house.
Dumont had an ugly scalp wound, which was dressed by the post surgeon.
Both men seemed to be in good spirits, and conversed freely regarding the rebellion. They stated that the papers had misrepresented them and their cause; that the affair had been agitated for years, and that the police had been driving them from place to place and they were compelled to fight, and would have been fighting yet but their ammunition was expended.
Dumont claimed to the officers that he was the best shot in Canada at 800 yards, and to prove it he fired at a stone about that distance away upon the prairie, and moved it. The two men were released on Thursday and allowed to go their way.
